

13th Annual KIDS are HEROES

A New Decade of Heroes

Nominate that super child in your life for the St. Joseph's Children's Hospital of Tampa "Kids Are Heroes" program.

This event recognizes special young people, ages 5-18, who have done heroic deeds in our community.

We're looking for kids who have done heroic deeds, such as:

- Set an example through extraordinary acts of courage
- Made an outstanding contribution to a person, animal or society
- Performed actions that saved someone or something from harm
- Put others' needs before their own

Nominate your hero

- He/she must live in Hillsborough, Hernando, Pasco, Pinellas, Manatee or Polk County.
- Fill out the nomination form on the back and return by October 26, 2009.

Tampa Bay's outstanding young heroes will be selected by a panel of judges made up of children from St. Joseph's Children's Hospital and members of the Tampa Bay Lightning. To congratulate our heroes, we're holding a special ceremony for nominees, winners and their families. Winners will receive special gifts from St. Joseph's Children's Hospital and the Tampa Bay Lightning.

Please fax or mail your nomination to: St. Joseph's Children's Hospital
Public Relations Department
3001 W. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
